

THE HYMN

“TAKE MY LIFE, AND LET IT BE”

1. Take my life, and let it be consecrated,
Lord, to thee. Take my moments and my days; let them flow in ceaseless praise, let them flow in ceaseless praise.

2. Take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of thy love, Take my feet, and let them be swift and Beautiful for thee, swift and beautiful for thee.

3. Take my voice, and let me sing, always, only, for my King. Take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee, filled with messages from thee.

4. Take my silver and my gold; not a mite would I withhold. Take my intellect, and use every power as Thou shalt choose, every power as Thou shalt choose.

THE NEW TESTAMENT READING

JOHN 13: 7-17

Jesus replied, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.”

“No,” said Peter, “you shall never wash my feet.”

Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.”

“Then, Lord,” Simon Peter replied, “not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!”

Jesus answered, “A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet; his whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you.” For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean. When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord’ and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. I tell you the truth, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

THE HYMN      “SPIRIT OF GOD, DESCEND UPON MY HEART”

1. Spirit of God, descend upon my heart; wean it from earth, through all its pulses move; stoop to my weakness, mighty as thou art, and make me love thee as I ought to love.

2. I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies, no sudden rending of the veil of clay, no angel visitant, no opening skies; but take the dimness of my soul away.

3. Hast thou not bid us love thee, God and King? All, all thine own, soul, heart, and strength and mind. I see thy cross— there teach my heart to cling: O let me seek thee, and O let my find.

4. Teach me to feel that thou art always nigh; teach me the struggles of the soul to bear, to check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh; teach me the patience of unanswered prayer.
